SEABRIGHT, N. J.

HE great project of the construction of a continuous Ocean Highway along the coast of New Jersey, extending from Atlantic Highlands to Cape May, was received with marked enthusiasm. The New Jersey Ocean Boulevard Committee was formed with the idea to co-operate with the state officials in bringing about such an important improvement—the building of a drive over 125 miles in length which will, when completed, rival those of Europe and cause many, heretofore strangers to our coast, to visit and tour the State already famous for its beautiful scenery and perfect roads.

The many and diversified benefits which the people of the whole State will receive from an Ocean Highway should bring about its suc-

An Ocean Highway maintained and owned by the State will increase property valuations tremendously; cut down local road taxes and bring to New Jersey thousands of pleasure seekers and thousands of dollars profit.
